

SATURDAY HIKES - LIVING WITH NATURE AT WINTERGREEN

Our Saturday hikes are designed to help better understand the nature of Wintergreen and surrounding wilderness. Topics range from tree and wildflower identification to geology and wildlife. These special programs are free for Foundation Members, children with Family Memberships, and renters with a valid Family Membership Pass. They are available to non-members for a fee. Dogs are welcome at The Trillium House, on the grounds and trails. However, we ask you to refrain from bringing dogs on our guided hikes. Saturday hikes are rated moderate to strenuous, bring water and wear sturdy hiking shoes. Meet at the Nature Foundation's Trillium House. Follow us on Facebook, Instagram and check our website weekly for updates.

No More Dog Ears! Watercolor Bookmarks Workshop

Please do not mark your books with dog ears or keep your place with scraps of paper. As a participant aged 12 and over with some experience in watercolor, you can create your own unique bookmarks! In the pursuit of fun in art, Carolyn Velletri will lead participants in creating four themed watercolor bookmarks - clouds, leaves, or you can take off on your own adventure! Supplies for making four laminated 2" by 6" bookmarks will be provided for use during the workshop. However, feel free to bring your own watercolor brushes and supplies. Space is limited. Payment is due at time of registration. $20/Member, $25/Non-Member.

Nature Photography Class

Andrew Wilds, a local professional photographer of 30 years, will share his passion and knowledge of photography. His visual presentation will highlight his portfolio -- portraits, macro, nature, travel, even medical photography! You will learn the basics of what makes a good photograph, including lighting, camera settings and how they effect a photo. The talk will be interactive with Q&As. Refreshments provided. Space is limited. Payment is due at time of registration. $25/Member, $35/Non-Member.

22, 7am

Saturday Sunrise Photography Walk with Andrew Wilds

Bring your digital camera for a morning walk with photographer Andrew Wilds during the "golden hour" when the lighting is best to capture the beauty that nature gives us. Afterwards you can bring your best photos to the Trillium House where you can print your photo creations and create your own small natural wonders photo album (refreshments will be provided). This walk is restricted to 12 people so sign up early! Friday night presentation is not mandatory, but is highly recommended. Payment is due at time of registration. $30/Member, $40/Non-Member.
